

The Bader Bugle

Summer Term 2

3rd May 2019

A message from The Head Teacher

The name of our 'new' newsletter has caused a chuckle or two this week with various definitions and pronunciations. I am sure you are aware what a 'bugle' is and the reason why it is the 'Bader Bugle'. It is spreading the Bader word for that particular week, news-wise. Enjoy!

Mrs Horner (Miss Westwood)

We would like to wish Mrs Horner well as she embarks on her next challenge as a professional counsellor. Mrs Horner has long established links with Bader as she was once a pupil here herself, taught by our very own Miss Wood and has, for the last ten years, supported many children with their learning. Good Luck, Mrs Horner, you will be greatly missed. Thank you for all your efforts and hard work.

Read for the Stars

Reading at Home

'Read for the Stars' reading initiative rewards children who regularly read at home. We recognise the importance of becoming a reader and developing as a reader which is why we really push reading in school.

Well done to Jaidon Matthews for reaching the sun this week.

Well done also to Chloe Hill and Abbie Carney for reaching the sun a second time!

Please read with your child or encourage them to read aloud to you or to find a quiet place and lose themselves in a really good book.

Mathematicians of the Week is where teachers look for and choose a person in their class who has really shone in their maths work that week.

Well done to:-

Miss Beckwith's Mathematician was Aleisha Dunford
Mrs Jones's Mathematician was Suzi Tyers
Mrs Jatwa's Mathematician was Jenson Hilton
Mrs Ayre's Mathematician was Sophie Elliott

Bader Values

Our Bader values of happiness, aiming high, determination, excellence and respect continue to be celebrated and rewarded. The rewards your children receive (via class dojo) will all now link to the above values and in addition to our celebration assembly on a Monday, children can earn 'aiming high' tokens towards bronze, silver and gold awards. We are trialling this, this term, and would encourage you to discuss the Bader values with your children to embed this further.

This week's Best of Bader awards go to:

Isabel Emms – Determination
Freddie Jackson – Excellence
Maisie Barrett – Excellence
Theo Finch – Aiming High
Daisy Garbutt – Aiming High

Scarlett Roberts – Excellence
Lily Simpson – Aiming High
Mylie Boyd – Happiness
Tarryn Tinkler – Aiming High

Cole Wilson – Aiming High
Harley Ashcroft – Determination
Halle Allison – Aiming High
Daisy Jackson – Happiness

Pen Licence

This week's lucky pupils to receive their licence, as endorsed by the Pen Inspector General (me) are
Kacey Carney, Leo Frost and Sophie McGrath
Well done to them!

Sports Stars

The contribution to P.E. and sport is recognised by Mr Murphy, our Sports Coach.

Well done to last week's winners:

Will Spence and Kianna-Mae Harper

P.E. Kit

These should be left in school until the end of the half term/term unless there is an urgent need to take them home please. Unfortunately, lots of children are taking their P.E. kits home after P.E. lessons and then not bringing them back into school the next day.

Uniform

We are proud of our school and our school motto of 'Aiming High'. The vast majority of our children follow the uniform policy which gives a real sense of belonging to our community. This is just a reminder that acceptable footwear is flat black shoes or black plain trainers please. Children will be expected to change into black plimsolls inside if they wear inappropriate footwear.

Lost Property / Named Clothes

Lots of parents/carers are really good at putting names inside and on school uniform which makes it an awful lot easier when items of uniform are mislaid. In the event of your child coming home with uniform which is obviously not theirs, as these things do happen (especially with our younger children), can I please ask that the items are brought back into school so that we can try and return them.

Thornaby Schools Band

Miss Robson's vision of having a brass band in our school was finally realised this week.

The newly formed 'Thornaby Schools Band' operating out of Bader and featuring our very talented trumpet players will get together on a weekly basis to practise their skills under the careful eye of Miss Robson and Mr Down from Tees Valley Music Service.

We feel this is a fabulous accolade and achievement for our school and enormous credit goes to Miss Robson for making this happen. #badervalues #determination #aiminghigh
